In confirmation of my cable of this date, I am sorry that we cannot adopt your recommendation to retain "United States Monitoring Post" as part of your title. Our original recommendation to the Front Office included this suggestion of yours, but was later amended at [redacted] suggestion to uniformity with the titles of other bureaus. We prefer not to go back to the Front Office now with a second amendment. Perhaps you can ease the transition for local officials by using "United States Monitoring Post" in informal oral conversations for a time.

As I cabled, Service Branch has accepted your recommendation that you have stationery printed locally at a cost not to exceed fifty dollars ($50).

Sincerely yours,

25X1A9A

Acting Chief, FBIB
